

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

VS.

MARTIN TIRADO-CEBREROS,
Defendant.

8:10CR307

ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Martin Tirado-Cebreros (Tirado-Cebreros) (Filing No. 25). Tirado-Cebreros seeks until September 30, 2010, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Tirado-Cebreros's counsel represents that Tirado-Cebreros will file an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. He shall do so within seven business days. Tirado-Cebreros's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Tirado-Cebreros's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 25) is granted. Tirado-Cebreros is given until on or before September 30, 2010, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between September 16, 2010, and September 30, 2010, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice.

18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 16th day of September, 2010.
